What should voters know about your commitment to keeping everyone, including students with disabilities, safe in school?

In my first term on the Seattle School Board, I have demonstrated my commitment to student safety through leading on gun violence prevention efforts, advocacy for increased support for student mental health, and I lead the changes in SPS policy to eliminate isolation and limit restraint. I have also worked with advocates from across the state to reduce isolation and restraint in all school districts, and have been endorsed by Guy Stephens, founder and Executive Director of Alliance Against Seclusion and Restraint who says, "Liza is committed to reducing and eliminating restraint and seclusion and creating safer and more inclusive schools for all children, teachers, and staff."
