

Employment Decisions in Mothers of Children with Autism Study

What's Involved?

Participants will complete a series of online surveys regarding their mental health, employment decision, relationship with their partner, and relationship with their child. This should take about 45-60 minutes.

Purpose of Study:

To understand why mothers of children with autism decide to quit or to remain in their career and the impacts this decision has on their lives

Now Recruiting Mothers:

Who have a child with an autism diagnosis and is between the ages of 10-17 years

AND

Are married

AND

Who have quit their career to care for their child with autism (cannot be due to COVID-19)

Payment: $15 Amazon Gift Card

Contact us to Sign Up!

TCU

Families, Autism, and Child Emotion Studies

tcufaces@gmail.com

(817) 257-4185

Or visit us at tcufaces.com

All information provided is confidential.

This study is approved by the
TCU Institutional
Review Board.