	Supported Living: A contracted program funded by the State of Washington that provides residential support and advocacy for adults who have an intellectual or developmental disability and are living in the community. Serving around 50 individuals, direct support professionals help participants meet their healthcare needs, assist with daily tasks like grocery shopping and cleaning, and ensure that individuals are able to participate in the recreational, religious, and social events of their choosing. At its foundation, the Supported Living Program seeks to ensure that adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities living in King County have access to community inclusion.

	Outreach and Advocacy: A multifaceted program that includes our community outreach, educational, and systems advocacy efforts. Information & Referral occurs over the phone, via email, or in-person during events or home visits; multicultural staff provide specialized assistance to African American, Latino, Somali and Vietnamese families. For caregivers seeking additional socioemotional support, we offer Parent-to-Parent, a peer support program that includes workshops, education and training seminars, and mentorship. Systems Advocacy efforts include legislative activities led by Community Change Champions, and activist-advocate program led by people with disabilities, providing education, training, and leadership opportunities for self-advocates, and our King County Parent and Family Coalition whose 800+
